

Nina made it on to the weekend Boston news broadcasts. Sandie and Nina also made the Sunday Boston Globe! Way to go Parrotheads. And was that really Bob Pitreau in the Shark outfit?

“I’m searching for the spirit of the great heart, I see the fire in your eyes”. Amidst all the tongue and cheek, let’s not forget that we do this for the kids and adults of Special Olympics. We do this so they can compete and have the fire in their eyes. So thanks to everyone who sponsored us and to our fellow Parrotheads who came south to cheer us on. We might not have taken the total spotlight in Nantasket. But the continuous year round financial and enthusiastic moral support we offer to the Special Olympics program, makes PHCOEM the best of the show!!

With any great sporting event the athletes must recuperate from their strenuous endeavor. Under the ever-endearing watchful eyes of my wife Stacey, I’ll slowly “Bring back the Magic”. After all there is shrinkage, even in shallow waters. We’ll take on the beaches of Punta Cana with many grains of salt (and sand). It’s off to the Dominican Republic and another Parrothead scouting mission. “I’m chasing the sun and it never ends, I won’t make amends”.

*Above: That says it all!
Below: Mark Donnelley as "Shark Man"*

*Rick Werner, Jen Lynch, Nina Collins,
Sandie Flathers*