

MY VIEW OF THE HOLIDAY PARTY

From your faithful 9-ft. high SNOWMAN a.k.a. Toni Astore

Being on the tall side my perspective on the party was very different than most .As I stood guard in my corner of the room I saw many things that you may not have and I also have questions that go unanswered.

Like most of you, my day started very early. I got a good night's rest and was fully charged when it came time to start the party. I oversaw the flowing of drinks and was glad to see that the Parrotheads were wise in staying the night at the Hotel. Although I am not much of a dancer, I could feel the vibrations of the GREAT music from the BaHa's moving through my large frame. At any minute, if I had not been so wired I would have bounced my way across the dance floor.

I greatly enjoyed the "business meeting" - short & sweet. My favorite quote was from Jan Guerette, "I'm the treasurer and we have money...if you want the details I have them." If every corporation were that efficient we would not be in the economic situation we're in. Clear and to the point.

Being a bit on the shy side, .I didn't talk with many people. I did see one woman I was attracted to, but I think she had a "thing "for the Ba Ha drummer.

At one point I felt very tired, as if the wind had been knocked out of me. But in true Parrothead Head style, a few members came to my aid ...I got a breath of fresh air and I was good to go.

Later in the evening I caught a glimpse of another tall friend on the opposite side of the room. He was dressed in red with black boots and a beard. I was about to signal him to say hello, when I noticed him sinking to the floor. He was fading fast, but luckily someone came to his rescue. It was like a shot of electricity running through his body, he was charged and ready for the rest of the night.

As I said, I am on the shy side. When a Parrothead from the Cape tried to make a contact with me, I was embarrassed...it was too late, the room lights were on, The BaHas were packing up and it was time to end another great event. My thanks to Paul Somerville & his friend Bill who helped me deflate from the natural high I was on.

Thanks to all whose hard work went into making it a wonderful night.
Another successful event!

Unanswered questions?????

Loved Bill G's. tux shirt...where did he get it?

Why is Jen Lynch called PANTS?

Why does Paul "SummerBum"'s quiet pose cause people to think he is in a bad mood?

Why are Sandie & Len called the official BaHa dancers?

Is the cardboard Jimmy Buffett cut-out dating one of the inflatable dolls?

How many Hawaiian shirts do the BaHa Brothers have?